September 1917 World War 1 Remembered

From the 4th Canadian Mounted Rifles’ war diaries.

“At 8pm on the 3rd September A German Albatros Scout plane flew amid a violent anti-aircraft bombardment over our camp at Vimy and dropped this message, attached to a streamer”

“To the British Flying Corps

The squadron of the part of Vimy is politely begged to give news of the observer and of the pilots who are landed near Willerval on 5th August.

Are they dead or not?

Thanking before,

The German Flying Corps” (sic)

(One of the more civilised aspects of battle Ed)

Cheese & Wine Quiz. Sat 28th Oct.

This is advance notice for your diaries. Alan Smith is organising a cheese & wine party with a twist – a quiz plus a bit of cabaret. Make a note of the date – more details in the next edition of PN.

Thursday 16th November “Chocolates for Christmas”
Chocolates to taste , make & buy, full details next month

Extract from an official letter notifying residents of a new boundary road,
“It is hoped to take the bypass through the old cemetery, provided we can get permission from the bodies concerned”

Church Yard Banks & Hedges

Once again we are indebted to the local farming community for cutting the church yard grass banks and hedges in early summer. Because of the steep slope, this is a difficult job at the best of times so this contribution on behalf of the church and village is very much appreciated. At the risk of missing out some names, our thanks to James & Dawn Oulton, Darren & Jane Platt, Pete & Michael Hollins, Richard & John Manning, Jon Minger, Don Jones and Brian & Tristan Whittaker with apologies for any missing names.
